

MARGARET DOIG—WIDOW OF EZRA KING.

APRIL 20, 1860.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. FOSTER, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Margaret Doig, widow of Ezra King, late a soldier in the war of 1812, report:

That it appears from the petition that Ezra King was a third lieutenant in the army during the late war with Great Britain. It appears that she now enjoys a pension, commencing as early as 1817, on account of the services and death of her said husband. She now comes before Congress to have this pension increased.

Your committee can see no good reason why the prayer of the petitioner should be granted, and they therefore ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

MARGARET DOIG—WIDOW OF BERA KING.

Read at 10 A.M.—March 10, 1887.

Mr. Doig, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Margaret Doig, widow of Bera King, has a honor to the report of the following:

That it appears from the petition that Bera King was a third lieutenant in the army during the late war with Great Britain. It appears that she now enjoys a pension, commencing as early as 1847, on account of the services and death of her late husband. The pension is granted to her by the Congress to have the pension increased. Your committee can see no good reason why the grant of the pension should be granted, and they therefore ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.
